About the USFS

U.S. Figure Skating is the national governing body for the sport of figure skating in the United States as recognized by the United States Olympic Committee and the International Skating Union. The headquarters, along with the World Figure Skating Hall of Fame and Museum, is located in Colorado Springs, Colo. U.S. Figure Skating is comprised of more than 700 member clubs and 900 Basic Skills programs representing approximately 175,000 members. U.S. Figure Skating's mission is to provide programs to encourage participation and achievement in the sport of figure skating. The organization is charged with the development of the sport on all levels within the United States including athletes, officials, sanctioning of events and exhibitions, and establishing the rules and guidelines by which the sport is governed.

Getting Started - Adult Basic Skills Program

The U.S. Figure Skating Basic Skills program offers an introductory skating curriculum for the adult who has never skated. It's divided into six levels in which beginner adult skaters will progress at an individual rate while being challenged and motivated. The curriculum is designed specifically to teach the adult skater the basic elements of forward, backward, turns and stops before advancing to more challenging skating moves.
